*In all our hearts
The memories of
This great man's service
And his love
Will echo through the years.*

Words alone could not express how much Mr. Carl A. Price has meant to Palm Beach High School. He came to Florida from Kansas and he has been a part of our school on the Hill ever since. During his three years here he was, among other things, a member of our first football team. After graduating in 1926, Mr. Price attended the University of Florida. Palm Beach High lost him for a while but not for long, for he soon returned to teach and to be married.

In 1936 Mr. Howell Watkins asked Mr. Price to serve as Dean of Boys, a position he held for twenty years. During his time here he was our adviser, counsellor, confidant, and above all, our friend. Never too busy to share the troubles that seemed for the moment too heavy for us to bear alone, Mr. Price was and will continue to be in years to come, a memorable part of Palm Beach High School. So it is with gratitude in our hearts to this man for whom we all have the deepest respect and admiration, we proudly dedicate this Royal Palm of 1957.

Alma Mater

On the city's western border

Reared against the sky;

Proudly stands our Alma Mater

Dear old Palm Beach High.

Into the world we soon will travel

After school is done;

Still will stand our Alma Mater

Proudly looking on;

Sing her praises, send them upward

Over hill and dale;

Hail to thee, all hail.

Mr. Howard M. "Red" Whittington

Beloved Coach of Palm Beach High School

Stadium Slants

Honest Effort Was Red's Creed

By DICK TAYLOR

There's little that we can do, other than to join the hundreds of friends of Red Whittington who deeply mourn his death.

Our association with Red had profound effects, and to the thousands of persons in this community who were influenced by his ideals and extreme honesty, no doubt the effect was the same.

From Red we learned, at the practice field, on the diamond, and on the bench, that to compromise was folly, and dishonest. That to do anything less than your best was also folly and dishonest. And we learned that he held more pity than scorn for those youngsters under him who thought they had fooled someone by trying to get by on partial effort.

It was a way of life with him. Anyone who agreed with these concepts, understood easily the "whys" of his way of coaching a team. To those who failed to grasp Red's search for honesty, both in mental and physical forms, thought he was too tough on his boys.

But Red hated to see a youngster waste his true potential through laziness, lack of desire, or disinterest in the sport itself.

He was the first friend we made when we came to West Palm Beach in 1949. At a tender age of 21, impressions were forming, and the association with Red has made a lasting impression, and helped us to form guide-lines for living. We bring this up, for quite obviously, this same impression has been made on literally thousands of young men who worked under Red. It's our guess that he coached more than 2,000 boys in his career at Palm Beach High, and a good portion of them constitute our solid citizens of today.

Red's true friends in this area can almost be classified as a cult, so staunch were they in support of his work.

His passing is a much greater loss to this community than most people realize, for he was carrying his devotion to his career as an educator, a true builder of character, on in his work at Riviera Beach Junior High School.

Red is the type of person, had he lived a half-century earlier, to whom monuments are built. Red's monument is his record, both on the scoreboard and among men. He was a great man.

Senior Class History

We, the class of '57, agree that all good things must come to an end, but we shall always cherish the lingering memories of Palm Beach High.

We began our first year on the Hill with the Sophomore Get Acquainted Party which was a great success. A few weeks later we elected our class officers who were President, Terry Little, V. President, Horatio Castle; Secretary, Evelyn Meeks, Treasurer, Lynn Greer. We shall ever be grateful to our sponsor, Mrs. Sally Hogarth.

Our most popular sophomores were Evelyn Meeks, Carole McCampbell, Brenda McCampbell, Jane Parmelee, Lynn Greer, Norma Thach, Barbara Rowe, Sue Tathwell, Cora Ann Ware, Patty Ashworth, Meredith Leonard, Mike Warren, Bill Crickenberger, Robert Smith, Tommy Vernon, Don Ray Robertson, Terry Little, Robert Drury, Ben Tooke, and Horatio Castle.

The Sophomore Hop, which was held at the George Washington Hotel, was the climax for the great year.

Under the excellent guidance of our sponsors, Mrs. Sliker and Mr. Baumgarten, we elected the junior class officers who were President, Kendall Harris, V. President, Horatio Castle, Secretary, Evelyn Meeks, Treasurer, Betty Mahathey.

Among the activities of the year we attended the Cinderella's Ball, Our Junior Senior Prom, at the Casino in Lake Worth.

As we continue to reminisce, we realize that the class of fifty-seven was an excellent one.

Those officers elected from the senior class were President, Ben Tooke; V. President, Horatio Castle, Secretary, Evelyn Meeks; Treasurer, Barbara Rowe.

With the wise counseling of Miss Rowbotham and Mr. McLaughlin, we had an unforgettable year.

The seniors chosen by the faculty to be on the Steps of Honor, the highest honor Palm Beach High offers are Brenda McCampbell, Carolyn Mister, Betsy Shepley, Mary Sowell, Trudi Bush, Sandra Keith, Cherry Weakley, Edonna Borchardt, Evelyn Meeks, Caroline Birdsall, Norma Thach, Donald Ray Robertson, Dave Davenport, Ben Tooke, Richard Drury, Robert Drury, Mike Warren, Horatio Castle, Tommy Vernon, Walter Birdsall, and Bill Crickenberger.

The Popular Senior Superlatives elected from the class were Best All Round, Ben Tooke and Brenda McCampbell, Personality Plus, Tommy Corbitt and Jane Parmelee; Best Looking, Donald Ray Robertson and Elaine Free; Class Darlings, Phil Romano and Caroline Birdsall; Most Likely to Succeed, Mary Sowell and Tommy Vernon, Friendliest, Horatio Castle and Evelyn Meeks; Life of the Party, Paul Sterns and CeCe Drew, Best Dancers, Bill Ande and Norma Thach; Outstanding in Scholarship, Bill Crickenberger and Sue Gold, Most Outstanding in Athletics, Jim Beaver and Bets Anderson; Most Talented, Carolyn Mister and Barkley Henderson, Most School Spirit, Mike Warren and Carole McCampbell.

We had a wonderful time at our Senior Skip Day at Du Bois. As we slowly made our way homeward, we stored up memories at our last picnic together, to think about in later years.

With shining eyes, all danced to flowing music at our Junior Senior Prom. Thanks to the juniors for a never-to-be-forgotten time.

We were proud and happy to receive our diplomas. Even though we looked forward to the future, we hated to leave such a wonderful School.

Junior History

As we, the Class of 1958, look back over our sophomore year, we recall many memories of our first venture into life on the "Hill."

The first big event of the year was our Sophomore Get-Acquainted Party where we had fun and met some wonderful people. Then we elected our class officers who were President, Ted Stirling, Vice-President, Charles Hawkins, Secretary, Helen Turner, and Treasurer, Ralph Pinney. To guide us, we chose Mrs. Joan Hill and Mr. Ed Boell. Most popular sophomores were Connie Berry, Sandra Peacock, Helen Turner, Judy Watson, Shirley Reasoner, Dotty Burgess, Cathy Hays, Hazel Jordan, Margaret Huyck, Kay Knight, Frank Moskowitz, Ted Stirling, Ralph Pinney, Terry Christopher, Sam Warren, Pat Pugsley, Buddy Platt, Charles Hawkins, Duane West, Tommy Valente, and John Riggs.

Phipp's Park was the scene of confusion, cake, and just plain fun. Our skip day was one we'll never forget. We could have danced all night among seahorses and mermaids in Neptune's Kingdom at the Sophomore Hop.

Now behind us is our second year on the "Hill." One of our first projects was the selection of our officers. They were President, Ted Stirling, Vice-President, Charles Hawkins, Secretary, Helen Turner, and Treasurer, Jane Keil. Our sponsors were Mrs. Joan Hill and Mr. Andrew Vamis.

On through the year we went leaving behind us memories never to be forgotten. Before we knew it, it was time to select our popular juniors. They were Hazel Jordan, Connie Berry, Sandy Clift, Sandra Peacock, Shirley Reasoner, Margaret Huyck, Janice Sheffield, Ann Roswell, Helen Turner, Cathy Hays, Tonia Teasdale, Kay Knight, Judy Watson, Ted Stirling, Frank Madsen, Frank Moskowitz, Jim Powell, Charles Hawkins, Pressly Daniels, Harris Holmes, Dave Parham, Jerry Browning, Duane West, Jim Bennett, Bernie Smith, and Denny Setterfield.

Our junior skip day was just as much fun as our first one had been. The prom we gave for the senior class was one that we will always remember. With these memories we close our year as the junior class of 1957.

Sophomore Class History

Read this! Read this!

Here we are, the coming class of '59, having just had a wonderful '56-'57 year. At first, we were lost. Wrong stairs and wrong classes, but now we know that our junior year will be one of confidence.

Our year started off with a "bang," by having the Sophomore-Get-Acquainted party. Goodness, we have lots of talent and we never even realized it.

Next it was time to choose our class officers. After looking at the candidates over carefully, we chose a very capable and hard working group. They are the following: President, Jim Bishop, Vice-President, Terry Fairbanks, Secretary, Linda Williams and Treasurer, Leslie Greer. Of course, we can't forget our wonderful sponsors, Mrs. Maxine Barshell and Mr. H. E. McGhee.

For our superlatives we chose Linda Williams, Leslie Greer, Gloria Connell, Kathy Shearer, Linda Ball, Sue McKenzie, Karen Quigley, Patti Pennick, Claire Ranch, De De Teare, Sandra Noel. The boys were Jimmy Bishop, Max Beebee, Larry Leaming, Terry Fairbanks, Tommy Bell, Charles Corbitt, Jimmy Bradford, Tony Godfrey, Tom Brooks, Kenny Tyre, Chuck Carrier.

Two of the biggest and best events of the year were our annual Skip Day Picnic and our dance, the Sophomore Hop.

We ended this year with a feeling, that success is on the way and that we are ready to take the step forward to being "jolly juniors."

Allied Youth

The purpose of P B H S's Allied Youth is to show students they can have a good time without alcohol. Their meetings, twice a month, feature movies, guest speakers, panel discussion, followed by games and refreshments.

This year the club was sponsored by Mrs. Esther Black who did a wonderful job.

The highlight of this year's activities was a trip to International Allied Youth Conference in Pennsylvania. This year civic clubs in Palm Beach County helped sponsor the students. Thirteen students attended this year.

Cheerleaders

This year's '57 cheerleaders bubbling over with enthusiasm led the students in yells that told the boys we were with them. The team could always be sure that the cheerleaders would be there to keep their spirits high. For this season they had as captain Carol Finn, and for co-captain Brenda McCampbell.

1956 Junior Varsity

Competing one of the most successful seasons of Palm Beach High School's history, the 1956 Jay Vee team came out with flying colors under the excellent guidance of Coaches Palin and Melear. To make this record many hours of drilling and scrimmage were combined with excellent cooperation by the team.

An illustration featuring a pickaxe with a long handle and a double-pointed head, positioned diagonally. Behind the pickaxe is a large, stylized letter 'A' filled with a halftone dot pattern. In front of the pickaxe's head are two books stacked horizontally, with the pickaxe appearing to rest on them.

Original layouts, distinctive typography and sparkling reproduction that give your annual the luxurious appearance impossible to obtain by standard layout, mass-production methods.
